

MYSTERY MOUNTAIN

Mystery mountain, won't you take me in

Am

There's no place left to hide

You cast your spell when I was child

F

I'm crossin' to the other side

C

Seen violence of the heart and violence of the mind

F

Violence of the soul and there is not much time

Am

To feel the shelter of your trees

Won't you take me please?

Mystery mountain, there's not much to tell

Just survival on this earth

See your dreams twisted and you try to resist it

And forget what it's all worth

That old fool killer story haunts me once again

The old scissors grinder's just around the bend

He's waiting there for me

A still wind's in the breeze

Mystery mountain, I can still smell your pines

From that summer far away

Long before I crossed the unseen line

To a place I couldn't stay

I made some mistakes, but I have no regrets

I'll take whatever's comin', but I won't take any bets

I'm in the tightest squeeze

With only one to please
